Spring into Corrimal

The Corrimal Chamber of Commerce was established in 1949 - the longest established Local Business Chamber within the Illawarra region. We have a strong membership base and are growing every day. Most of our members are from the Northern Illawarra but we also have many members outside this area.

The area that we represent is from Wollongong City to Thirroul.

Our Mission

Our mission is to advance business and community at the same time. We aim to create a vibrant and successful business and community environment by providing leadership, advocacy and collaboration.

Our Vision

Our vision is to provide valued services to our members, to promote economic growth, to be the collective voice of our members and to be a strategic partner in initiatives that have an impact on our lives, businesses and community.

Benefits

Our benefits to members include:

- Business referrals
- New member announcements
- Professional networking opportunities
- Chamber stickers to display in the front of your business
- Listing on the chamber website and a link to your website
- Promotion opportunities
- Business development - seminars and workshops run by members and affiliates
- Access to professional services
- Complimentary membership to the NSW Business Chamber
