Spring into Corrimal

The Corrimal Chamber of Commerce was first established in 1949 - the longest established chamber of commerce within the Illawarra region. We have a strong membership base and are growing everyday in every way. There are over 3,000 businesses and 50,000 residents between Fairy Meadow and Thirroul. Most of our members are from the northern Illawarra but we also have members outside the area. The area we look after is from Fairy Meadow to Thirroul.

Our Mission

Our mission is to advance business and community within Corrimal and the Northern Illawarra areas. We aim to create a vibrant and successful business and community environment by providing leadership, advocacy and collaboration.

Our Core Values

1. Providing leadership, directions and collaboration
2. Promoting a strong local economy
3. Providing networking opportunities
4. Providing business referrals
5. Promoting and supporting the community via community events
6. Representing the interests of business with the government
7. Providing and promoting local opportunities to our members
8. Creating employment within the local area

Our Vision

Our vision is to provide valued services to our members, to promote economic growth, to be the collective voice of our members and to be a strategic partner in initiatives that have an impact on our lives, businesses and community.

Our Goals

1. Attract and retain a broad-based membership
2. Generate member participation to support vital business plans
3. Offer services to members that increase the value of their investment
4. Communicate with members, local businesses and government on a regular basis to maximise benefits to all
